Значение

верх; верхняя часть

A handwriting practice grid for the Chinese character '上' (Shàng). The grid is organized into 10 rows and 10 columns. The first column contains the radical '丨' (vertical stroke). The second column contains the character '上' with a horizontal stroke at the top. All other columns contain the character '上' without the horizontal stroke at the top. The characters are written in black ink on a light background.
